

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, Nov. 21, 2024

Click on a story to read the complete version online. Note some networks do not allow access to embedded links. For those readers under this network restriction, right click the article you want to read and "Copy link location" into your browser.

☆☆☆ DID YOU KNOW? ☆☆☆

USAEC executes programs to enable DOD readiness and Army environmental stewardship. Click on the link to learn more.

FMWR survey gives Army Families the chance to shape programs and services

Earlier this month, the Army Family, Morale, Welfare and Recreation directorate launched its Army-wide Customer Needs Survey, which will give customers a chance to influence the direction of FMWR. The survey lasts until the end of January.

BOSS program gets first look at future home for Humphreys, Eighth Army single Soldiers

Soldiers from the U.S. Army Garrison Humphreys Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers program, better known as BOSS, got a firsthand look at where future service members assigned to Camp Humphreys will live. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Far East District hosted BOSS at an under-construction enlisted housing complex Nov. 6.

IMCOM DCG honors USAG Hawaii professionals for support to 25 ID, Army readiness in Pacific

MG James Smith, IMCOM deputy commanding general, visited U.S. Army Garrison Hawaii recently and praised the garrison's outstanding support to the 25th Infantry Division and contributions to Army readiness in the Pacific. He also honored five IMCOM professionals with commander's coins for their dedication to the mission.

IGSA with University of Georgia to enhance installation resilience at Fort Moore, MCoE

U.S. Army Garrison Fort Moore and the Maneuver Center of Excellence hosted an official ceremonial signing of an intergovernmental support agreement designed to enhance the resilience of the installation in partnership with the University of Georgia Carl Vinson Institute of Government Nov. 7 in Fort Moore's McGinnis-Wickham Hall.

Fort McCoy hosts housing town hall for garrison, 88th Readiness Division residents

Fort McCoy Garrison Commander COL Sheyla Baez presided over a privatized town hall Nov. 13 that included dozens of residents across the garrison and 88th Readiness Division. Baez also introduced Isabella Larson, the new housing manager from Cadence Privatized Housing.

PFC with 101 CAB at Fort Campbell sets new paces, standards for junior enlisted Soldiers

PFC Abraham Jarvis ran in the Army 10-Miler, the world's second largest 10-mile race, on Oct. 13 in Washington. Jarvis completed the qualifier in sixth place to qualify for his first road race. During the race, Jarvis clocked in with a time of 1 hour, 5 minutes for an average pace of 6 minutes, 44 seconds.

Fort Liberty PAIO, retired LTC finds healing and purpose through writing and service

Edward Milligan, who served in the U.S. Army from 1981-2004 and is a plans, analysis and integration officer for the Fort Liberty Garrison, continues to make an impact throughout the garrison and XVIII Airborne Corps with powerful stories and poetry that resonate worldwide.

Fort Sill's Adopt-A-Soldier Program brings holiday cheer to FCoE, 434th FAB trainees

For some Basic Combat Training trainees at Fort Sill, returning home for the holidays is not an option. For over 10 years, the 434th Field Artillery Brigade has been coordinating the Adopt-A-Soldier program to offer these trainees a heartwarming alternative.

Fort Cavazos TAP job fair marches in opportunities for garrison, III Armored Corps

Hundreds of job seekers and employers came together for the Texas Workforce Commission's Hiring Red, White and You! Career Fair on Nov. 6 at the Lone Star Conference Center at Fort Cavazos. The career fair has provided an opportunity for veterans, transitioning military members and military spouses to connect with potential employers.

USAG Rheinland-Pfalz's media day shows growth, modernization plans for Baumholder

U.S. Army Garrison Rheinland-Pfalz hosted a media information day on Smith Barracks Nov. 14 to update the local press and local leadership on the planned growth to the Baumholder military community and the investments the U.S. Army is making into the installation. COL Jeffrey Higgins, garrison commander, expressed his gratitude for the enduring partnership.

USAG Japan wraps up Red Ribbon Week by urging youths to opt for healthy, drug-free life

The U.S. Army in Japan community wrapped up another successful Red Ribbon Week with senior leaders – including USAG Japan Commander COL Marcus Hunter -- speaking directly to community youths Nov. 1 about the importance of living drug-free lives. Red Ribbon Week educates youths on the dangers of drugs.

Tobyhanna Depot's 'Healthy Workplace' award enables top support to CECOM

Business leaders from across the greater Wyoming Valley in northeastern Pennsylvania honored Tobyhanna Army Depot Nov. 14, celebrating its employee-focused culture that allows the depot to fully support Communications and Electronics Command.

For Fort Stewart and 3 ID residents, cemetery tour keeps history alive

Fort Stewart, 3rd Infantry Division residents and community members braved spotty showers Nov. 14 for the latest Fall Cemetery Tour that featured four cemeteries, each belonging to communities that once resided on the 288,000 acres of land that encompass the coastal installation today.

MSCoE, Fort Leonard Wood leaders touch on housing, FMWR initiatives during town hall

Maneuver Support Center of Excellence and Fort Leonard Wood senior leaders – including MSCoE Commanding General MG Christopher Beck and Garrison Commander COL Steven Bartley -- highlighted a few accomplishments and provided an update on several key topics during a town hall for installation residents Nov. 13 at Lincoln Hall Auditorium.

Letterkenny breaks ground on new firehouse that will support garrison, AMCOM

For the second time in 2024, Letterkenny Army Depot leadership commemorated another modernization milestone as COL Donald Santillo, depot commander, hosted a groundbreaking ceremony for the new LEAD fire station on Nov. 19. The firehouse will provide the garrison and Aviation and Missile Command up-to-date mission-critical support.

IMCOM Groundbreaking Events

Dec. 1, USAG Bavaria.

Groundbreaking for 36 townhouse units that will house junior NCOs. The units consist of 18 three-bedroom floor plans and 18 four-bedroom floor plans.

SOURCE: Event information is provided by installation staff, who upload it to the IMCOM HQ G4 SharePoint calendar. Contact local DPW personnel for more information.

Follow us on social media

LinkedIn
@U.S. Army
Installation
Management
Command

X
@ArmyIMCOM

Scan this QR code to catch up on back issues of the IMCOM Weekly
News Sampler

