Fort Campbell High School Emergency Action Plan Exercise

- Fort Campbell PMO, DODEA personnel, and students will participate in a lockdown and response drill on 12 September 2018.
- The exercise will start at 9:00am and it will test the Fort Campbell High School's emergency action plan.
- The exercise purpose is for DoDEA staff and faculty to exercise their lockdown procedures, while the Military Police (MP) respond, establish security, exercise incident command and neutralize the threat.

UNCLASSIFIED

Fort Campbell High School Emergency Action Plan Exercise

- The High School exercise is the first of a series of planned exercises to test and increase the response readiness across the Fort Campbell Schools, Child Development Centers and Youth Activity Centers.
- Based on recent events across the United States, the overall exercise plan is a means to proactively assess our ability to respond to similar events.
- The Public Affairs Office will release information across numerous media outlets as the exercise date approaches.

DEPLOYED SPOUSES PROGRAM

Stay or go, we are here to serve you and your family during deployment!

At Campbell Crossing, our staff understands the stress related to a pending deployment. Our goal is to make this time as stress free as possible for you and your family. We are proud to offer two different programs for you and your family to decide what is right for you.

OPTION ONE:

01

Let Us Be Your Storage!

If you choose to go, keep your home and belongings with us to reduce stress and save money on a move!

LET US MAKE IT EASIER!

1. Keep your home with everything inside to reduce stress on your family.
2. Save money!
3. We perform routine maintenance checks to ensure everything is working properly while you are away.

Let us care for you while your loved one is away.

Contact your Community Office for more information!

OPTION TWO:

02

Stay with Us!

If you choose to stay, you can enroll in our Deployed Service Member Punch Card Program. This program offers a variety of options for those honey do list items in your home; tailored to meet the needs of your family.
