Kusadasi Cruise Arrival: 7.30 am | Cruise Departure: 1.00 pm

Patmos Cruise Arrival: 5.45 pm | Cruise Departure: 9.30 pm

The first port of call today is the Turkish port of Kusadasi where you will participate in the Ancient Ephesus through the Ages - Hellenistic/Roman tour. The journey begins from Kusadasi to Ancient Ephesus along fragrant roads lined with olive trees. One of the 12 cities of Iona, this is a stunning marvel in the hills above the Aegean coast, one of the world's largest open-air archeological museums. Founded by the ancient Greeks circa 2000 BC. Ephesus was dedicated to the goddess Artemis, and its Artemision, a temple in her honor, took 120 years to complete and was one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. You can wander through the Odeon and the Prytaneion, then stroll between the marble colonnades of Curetes Street to visit Trajan's Fountain, Hadrian's Temple, the Scholastica Baths and the astonishing Terrace Houses. Nearby, where Curetes Street becomes Marble Street, is the spectacular Library of Celsus, which has been almost entirely reconstructed, and the Agora. Every step here takes you deeper into the Hellenistic, Roman and early-Christian eras; you'll notice inscriptions on many of the city's columns. The Great Theater of Ephesus, where St. Paul once preached, was carved into the side of Mt. Pion in the 4th century BC. Before returning to the cruise time permitting you will be able to walk through the Covered Bazaar in Kusadasi. where, you will be able bargain for jewellery, Turkish carpets, cosmetics or leather products at the little shops. The cruise will then sail on to the Greek island of Patmos, where you will have the option to visit the Monastery and Grotto of St. John, where he lived and recorded the Book of the Revelation. After the tour, you will re-join your cruise ship in time for a delicious dinner. Overnight on board

DAY 05/WED: PATMOS - RHODES (B/L/D)

Rhodes Cruise Arrival: 7.00 am | Cruise Departure: 6.00 pm

Early this morning call in to the magnificent island of the roses for the Medieval tour - Acropolis of Lindos and the Citadel of the Knights. On this half-day walking tour you will explore the city's medieval history and the fascinating story of the Knights of St. John. We will walk among two centuries of Knights' history in Rhodes as we explore the Street of Knights. At the top of the street we will enter a world of architectural and political might, as we visit the impressive, Gothic-style Grand Master's Palace, the seat of power during the occupation of the Knights of St. John. We will end our walking tour with free time in Rhodes' Old Town, giving you the chance to enjoy a refreshment, take photographs or search for the best souvenir from magical Rhodes. Overnight on board

DAY 06/THU: RHODES - CRETE (HERAKLION) - SANTORINI (B/L/D)

Heraklion Cruise Arrival: 7.00 am | Cruise Departure: Noon

Santorini Cruise Arrival: 4.30 pm | Cruise Departure: 9.30 pm

Today's first port of call is the Cretan port of Heraklion, where you will have the opportunity to participate in an optional tour to the Palace of Knossos, to visit the center of the Minoan Civilization. The ship will sail on this afternoon to the most breathtaking island, Santorini, believed to be the lost continent of Atlantis. Enjoy your afternoon at leisure exploring the island.
