

①

Month of the Military Child
|

②

MILITARY
KIDS CAN!

③

Navigating Healthy Relationships
Fort Campbell, KY

④

Month of the Military Child Healthy Relationships Challenge

April is the Month of the Military Child (MOMC). Military Families can take on the challenge to visit 3 different agencies on Fort Campbell during the month of April to learn about building healthy relationships. Participating agencies are listed below.

Military Families will utilize the attached challenge worksheet to document their relationship-building adventures. Each agency will provide a sticker or stamp when visited and Families can decorate their challenge worksheet, if they choose, to share their experiences.

Agencies available Monday-Friday from 9am to 3pm:

- Child and Youth Services – Parent Central Services (Building 5384, Tennessee Avenue)
- Army Substance Abuse Program (Building 2551, 23rd Street)
- ACS Exceptional Family Member Program (Building 2601, Room 241, Indiana Avenue)
- ACS Financial Readiness Program (Building 2601, Room 202, Indiana Avenue)
- ACS Family Advocacy Program (Building 2601, Room 102, Indiana Avenue)
- Family Advocacy Program (Clinical) (Building 2523, 23rd Street)
- Military Police (Building 6354, Desert Storm Avenue)

Agency available during limited hours:

- Short Story Time @ Liberty Chapel (Building 3111, Bastogne Avenue.) (8-12 April, presented 1pm, 1:30pm, 2pm and 2:30pm)

The completed worksheet can be submitted for a MOMC Ornament. Ornaments will be distributed at the Army Community Service (ACS) Outreach table at the Month of the Military Child KIDSFEST on April 27, 2019 from 10am until 2pm at the South Sports Complex. The South Sports Complex is located at 5514 Wickham Ave.

If you choose to share your activity, please use the hashtag #ftchealthyrelationships