Upcoming Events

BACH Baby Expo

Blanchfield Army Community Hospital's Baby Expo is set for 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 24 at the Family Resource Center inside Gate 1. This educational fair is provided for Soldiers and beneficiaries who have delivered a baby within the past year, are currently pregnant, or planning to start a family. This event will feature community resources, as well as professionals from BACH educating and answering questions about a variety of topics such as prenatal care, appointments, medications, vaginal delivery, cesarean delivery, infant feeding, newborn care, postpartum care and much more.

National Mental Health Month

Congress designated the month of May as National Mental Health Month. Since 1949, the activities associated with National Mental Health Month have increased the public's awareness of behavioral health issues and the reality of behavioral health illness. Each year various organizations, community groups, Families and individuals across the country participate in this public campaign intended to raise awareness about behavioral health diagnosis such as depression, post-traumatic stress and a host of other behavioral health diagnosis impacting Soldiers, Families, Veterans and civilians.

Celebrate National Women's Health Week May 12 - 18

The goal is to empower women to make their health a priority. The week also serves as a time to help women understand what steps they can take to improve their health. The annual National Women's Health Week kicks off on Mother's Day, May 12, and is celebrated through May 18.

Health and Wellness

Breast Cancer Support Group

Blanchfield Army Community Hospital hosts a Breast Cancer Support Group the third Thursday monthly in the hospital's "A" Building inside the Commander's Classroom from 2 to 3 p.m. The Commander's Classroom is next to the Staff Duty Desk. This support group is open to individuals who have been recently diagnosed or a breast cancer survivor. For more information, call 270-798-8299.

Tobacco Cessation

The Army Wellness Center, 5662 Screaming Eagle Blvd., offers "Ready to Quit" every Tuesday from noon to 1 p.m. This briefing educates all TRICARE beneficiaries and DoD civilians about dangers of tobacco and assess readiness to join the Tobacco Cessation Program. The Tobacco Cessation Program is offered the 1st – 4th Wednesday monthly from noon to 1 p.m. For more information, call (270) 956-0100.

Patient Advisory Council

BACH is seeking patients to participate in the Patient Advisory Council. The Patient Advisory Council partners with patients and Family members to improve patient satisfaction, provide patient-centered care, bring patients' needs and concerns to the healthcare team and leadership, guide our priorities and planning for the future, and further enhance our relationship between the hospital and our community. If interested, email david.e.gillespie6.civ@mail.mil or call 270-956-0459.

BACH General Information

Army changes substance abuse treatment

- Soldiers can now voluntarily seek alcohol-related behavioral healthcare without being mandatorily enrolled in a substance abuse treatment program.
- Army Secretary Mark T. Esper signed directive March 25
- New policy encourages Soldiers to take personal responsibility and seek help earlier, improving readiness by decreasing unnecessary enrollment and deployment limitations.
- For more information, search Army Directive 2019-12 (Policy for Voluntary Alcohol-Related Behavioral Healthcare)
