9. Rules. ARTICLE 1. The starter has sole control over all aspects of the start. The starter's decisions shall be final (Rule 3-7.1). A starting-area marshal shall be assigned to assist in keeping the starting area clear and quiet. The starter shall confer only with the officials assigned to the starting line (assistant starters and starting-area marshal) in cases in which there are questions concerning the start. Practice starts in the immediate area of the starting line are not allowed in conjunction with the starter's commands.

ARTICLE 2. All races shall be started as a result of the starter activating a simultaneous audible and visible signal. The report of a pistol that can be cocked, not less than .32 caliber, or an electronic tone of at least 112dB at 15 feet, together with the flash/smoke generated by the pistol, or an electronic flash/strobe, clearly visible to the timers, shall be used. A misfire shall not be a start. A .22-caliber pistol may be used at indoor events. Starting Blocks

ARTICLE 3. The games committee may restrict starting block use in a meet to only those starting blocks supplied by the games committee. Starting blocks must conform to the requirements in Rule 2-1. Starting blocks may only be used in individual races shorter than 800 meters or in relays in which the first leg is shorter than 600 meters. The starting blocks must be set within each competitor's assigned lane without overlapping the starting line. Starting Races—Shorter than 500 Meters

ARTICLE 4. The starter, after receiving a "ready" signal from the head finish judge and alerting all competitors, shall direct the runners to "On your marks." The runners shall take the "On your marks" position, either crouched or standing, promptly and in such a way that no part of the body touches the track on or beyond the starting line. The starter then shall direct them to "Set." At this command, all competitors shall at once and without delay assume their full and final set positions. Then, when all are motionless, the starter shall discharge the pistol.

10. Awards: Individual awards will be presented to the champion and runner-up from the competition. Points will be awarded for participation in the Commanders Cup.

Process-Oriented - Team-Based - Customer-Focused - Results- Driven
