General:

- ☐ Are you and your family alert in your observations of persons who may have you under surveillance or who may be casing your house in preparation for a burglary or other crime?
- Have you verified the references of your domestic help, and have you submitted their names for security checks?
- Have you told your family and household assistants what to do if they discover an intruder breaking into or already in the house?
- Have you restricted the number of house keys?
- Do you know where all your house keys are?
- Have you identified telephone contact numbers for all adults?
- Have you identified rally points, such as at a neighbor's house or other identified location, for use in emergencies if the house must be evacuated?

Individual Security Vulnerability Assessment Checklist

This vulnerability assessment checklist was provided by the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC) to evaluate residences. Prospective renters should attempt to negotiate security upgrades as part of the lease contract when and where appropriate.

Always Ready, Always Alert Because someone is depending on you

Exterior Grounds: Interior Features: If you have a fence or tight hedge, have you evaluated it Are your perimeter doors made of metal or solid as a defense against intrusion? wood? Is your fence or wall in good repair? Are the doorframes of good solid construction? Are the gates solid and in good repair? Do you have an interview grill or optical viewer in Are the gates properly locked during the day and at night? your main entrance door? Do you check regularly to see that your gates are locked? ☐ Do you use the interview grill or optical viewer? Have you eliminated trees, poles, ladders, boxes, etc., that ☐ Are your perimeter doors properly secured with good may help an intruder to scale the fence, wall, or hedge? heavy-duty deadbolt locks? ☐ Have you removed shrubbery near your gate, garage, or Are the locks in good working order? front door that could conceal an intruder? ☐ Can any of your door locks be bypassed by breaking Do you have lights to illuminate all sides of your the glass or a panel of lightwood? residence, garage area, patio, etc.? ☐ Have you permanently secured all unused doors? Do you leave your lights on during hours of darkness? ☐ Are your windows protected by solid steel bars, Do you check regularly to see that the lights are working? ornamental, or some other type of shutters? If your residence is guarded, does his/her post properly Are unused windows permanently closed and secured? position him/her to have the best possible view of your Are your windows locked when they are shut? grounds and residence? Are you as careful of second floor or basement ☐ If applicable, does your guard patrol your grounds during windows as you are of those on the ground floor? the hours of darkness? ☐ Have you secured sliding glass doors and similar style If applicable, has your guard been given verbal or written windows with a broom handle, instructions and does he/she understand them? "Charlie bar," or good patio door lock? Do you have dogs or other pets that will sound an alarm if If your residence has a skylight, roof latch, or roof they spot an intruder? doors, are they properly secured? Have you considered installation of a camera system with ☐ Does your residence have an alarm system? recording capabilities or a dummy camera system as a ☐ Have you briefed your family and household assistants on good security procedures? deterrent? ☐ Do you know the phone number of the police or security force that services your neighborhood?