Welcome!

We, as an organization, fully embrace the Family & MWR Employee and Customer Covenant. Part of embracing that Covenant is through the development of the Fort Campbell Family & MWR Employee Recognition Program. This is your award program!

Our Family & MWR Employee Recognition Program is all about celebrating the great work our fellow employees do! Many employees feel that the most valuable praise comes from their peers and co-workers. This program makes it easy for you to recognize your peers and co-workers for their contributions. The Family & MWR Employee Recognition Program is designed to give all Employees an opportunity to recognize the contributions of their peers. This packet will outline the Family & MWR Employee Recognition Program to include timelines, outline each nomination category, the nomination/submittal process, committee voting, and award ceremony.

Success of these programs is attributed to employee involvement and their dedicated effort to carry out an appropriate award program. With your commitment we can make this a great program to award our outstanding employees!

Employee Recognition Committee

The Family & MWR Employee Recognition Committee is a volunteer duty and is comprised of two (2) Business and Recreation, two (2) Child and Youth Services, one (1) NAF Support and one (1) Army Community Service Employees. The Division Chiefs will be responsible for providing a backup for the committee meetings in the event someone from that division is unable to attend. The Family & MWR Employee Recognition Committee will meet quarterly to review all submissions and select winners for each category in person, as a group. To ensure that voting is fair and equitable, the Family & MWR Employee Recognition Committee will follow the guidelines below:

- If a committee member has nominated an employee, they will be excused from voting for that award.
- If a committee member is nominated, they will be asked to leave the room while that category is voted on.
- The Recognition Program Lead will be in attendance to facilitate the meeting. In the event the committee reaches a tie, the Recognition Program Lead will be the tie breaker.

Once winners have been selected, the list of winners will be provided to Financial Management and the Directorate Admin Support Specialist by the Recognition Program Lead, who will then complete the paperwork for all the monetary awards. The Recognition Program Lead will provide the list of winners and nominees to the Marketing Team to print certificates for the Award Ceremony.

Award Ceremony

The Award Ceremonies will be held on the dates outlined in the Award Timeline which will be published each fiscal year (dates are subject to change due to mission requirements). The Recognition Program Lead, along with assistance from the Marketing Team is responsible for coordinating the Award Ceremony to honor all nominees and category winners. The Garrison Commander and/or representative will be invited to each Ceremony to assist with the presentation of certificates. Certificates to be presented during the ceremony are, but not limited to, category winners, length of service certificates, and honorary awards. Nominee recognition at the Award Ceremony includes all category submission justifications being posted throughout the room which nominees will receive at the end of the ceremony and nominees will be asked to stand during the ceremony for acknowledgement.

An Emcee will facilitate each ceremony. Each Award Ceremony will comprise of a theme, games, prizes, photobooth, and catered breakfast finger foods. All attendees will receive a ticket at entry for a chance to win door prizes. Attendance at the Award Ceremonies is open to all employees and max participation is highly encouraged, as mission allows. Program Managers will receive the list of Winners and Nominees at least two weeks prior to the Award Ceremony and should schedule these Employees as a priority for attendance.

Caught in the Act

Purpose: This award can be nominated from employee to employee, supervisor to employee, or customer to employee.

Intent: The intent of this award is to provide employee recognition to promote esprit d' corps throughout the directorate by fellow employees, supervisors, or customers nominations.

Criteria: Any action that an employee is "Caught in the Act" doing that reflects positively upon them and their organization, are generally small actions that take place. Below are few examples of these types of actions:

- ✓ Employee has a positive work attitude that has a positive impact on those around them.
- ✓ Employee is an asset to the staff of his/her department or another department.
- ✓ Employee carries out additional responsibilities.
- ✓ Employee is consistently dependable.

Nomination: Any employee is eligible to receive a "Caught in the Act" nomination. Nominations can be received from fellow employees, supervisors, and Family & MWR patrons using the online nomination form. The individual recognizing the employee does not have to be within the employee's division/program.

Submission: Reminders will be sent out using multiple platforms throughout each quarter. Please see the Award Timeline for all submission due dates.

Selection: Selection is made by the Family & MWR Employee Recognition Award Committee.

Award/Recognition: All nominees will be recognized during the Award Ceremony. Caught in the Act winners will receive $5 worth of Family & MWR Bucks. These Family & MWR Bucks are to be used within Family & MWR Business and Recreation activities (excluding Leisure Travel Services and may not be used to purchase food & beverage or retail items [other exclusions may apply]). Family & MWR Bucks will be awarded during the Award Ceremony and may not exceed $10 in Family & MWR Bucks per quarter, if the individual exceeds more than two "Caught in the Act" nominations.

Employee of the Quarter

Purpose: This award is Family & MWR's quarterly recognition of non-supervisory employees who exemplify exceptional performance and reflect positively upon the organization continuously throughout the quarter in the following categories: Child and Youth Program Assistant (Entry, Skill, Target and Lead), Operational (Administrative, Army Community Service, Clerks, Financial Management, Information Technology, Library, Marketing, Operations Assistants, Special Events, Supply Warehouse, Trainers, etc.), Recreation (Aquatics, Bowling Center, Golf, Outdoor Recreation, Lead Recreation Assistants, PFCs, Sports, Youth Sports, etc.), and Services & Trades (Automotive, Bartenders, Cooks, Custodial, Food/Beverage Attendants, Maintenance, Waiters, etc.).

Intent: The intent of this award is to encourage higher level employee recognition of Employees nominated based on the quarter's performance through peer or supervisor nominations.
