Why does employee recognition matter?

Everyone needs to know they are valued and appreciated for their efforts.

While many staff inherently believe it, the MWR awards allow anyone to acknowledge actions of others. MWR awards can easily be submitted right from your smartphone! Other Army level awards have more rigor and require justifications that comply with all clearly defined criteria. This document is intended to help you know the differences and levels for submissions to become a reality.

In order to make recognition part of our workplace culture, we have to be consistent in identifying accomplishments.

You are the reason for success each and every day. You deliver the service that wouldn't happen without you. People leave jobs most often for feeling undervalued. Make acknowledging others part of your routine to keep us with a healthy culture of appreciation that fosters a better workplace for all.
