

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, April 15 2021

*Please note some networks do not allow access to embedded links. For those under this network restriction, right click the article you're trying to view and "Copy link location" into your browser.

Two new Army apps you will want

Two new mobile web applications are now available for all U.S. Army Garrison Ansbach military community members. The Digital Garrison app, which includes the U.S. Army Maintenance Application, is the digital answer to an old-fashioned community guide with phone directory, opening hours, event listings and more.

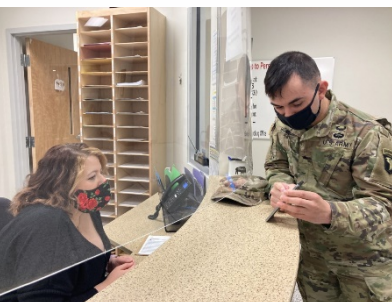

Tindoll receives Rock Island Arsenal update, presents awards

Davis Tindoll, director, IMCOM-Sustainment, visited Rock Island Arsenal March 31 to tour facilities and receive an update from USAG Rock Island Arsenal leadership. He also met with senior leaders at Army Sustainment Command and Joint Munitions Command.

USAG Benelux leaders climb five Levels of Leadership with IMCOM

"Invest in you and live up to your greatness!" This is the motto from the IMCOM training center to start the Game Changer Training: The 5 Levels of Leadership. Twenty members from USAG Benelux participated in this two-session workshop March 11 and 25.

Leaving Fort Campbell? Overseas PCS requires time, thought for best result

Before having large furniture and bulky items shipped overseas for a permanent change of station, or PCS, move, Soldiers should first visit the Fort Campbell Transportation Personal Property and Passenger Travel Office to ensure their arrangements are the right fit.

Civilian Media

Fort Riley, Kansas State University renew 12-year partnership

Kansas State formally renewed its partnership with the 1st Infantry Division and Fort Riley April 7 inside Anderson Hall. K-State President Richard Myers and Fort Riley MG D.A. Sims signed the agreement,

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, April 15, 2021

America's Hammer command team emphasizes People First, takes on extremism

The III Corps and Fort Hood command team appeared on Fort Hood's Great Big Podcast April 8 to discuss a variety of issues relating to Soldiers here and across the corps, as well as how leaders can mentor and guide them in the right direction.

Marusa, Boleslaus
(prisoner number: 20180)

born: 1920-02-28, place of birth: Katy-Lomza

When using images for exhibition or onscreen it is obligatory to add the source of documents: Archive of the Auschwitz-Birkenau State Museum

Extremism talks at USAG Italy lead into Holocaust discussions

Community members recently dedicated time to discuss extremist ideologies as part of DoD extremism stand-down training. That effort preceded the "Days of Remembrance," the nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust.

Fort McCoy holds extremism awareness stand-down training

Fort McCoy held two sessions of extremism awareness training March 26 via Microsoft Teams with the Fort McCoy workforce. The training comes at direction from the Secretary of Defense and the Department of the Army to hold stand-down training.

Housing town hall provides updates, addresses residents' questions

Fort Detrick's garrison commander held his quarterly housing town hall at the Balfour Beatty Community Center March 30. As efforts progress to improve the quality of military housing, Fort Detrick continues to press forward with open lines of communication.

Child Abuse Prevention Month kicks off at Fort Carson ACS

At least one in seven children have experienced child abuse and/or neglect in the past year, per the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. In 2019, over 1,800 children died of abuse and neglect in the U.S.

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, April 15, 2021

Fort Gordon Veterinary Clinic opens to care for cats, dogs, horses

Like many programs and services on the installation, the Fort Gordon Veterinary Clinic has undergone changes – not only as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, but also for transformation sake. The clinic is open and filled with staff ready to help with vaccinations, travel health certificates, establishing client-patient relationships and sick calls.

Fort Knox Barr Memorial first to earn Federal Library of the Year twice

For the second time, Barr Memorial Library at Fort Knox has been named Federal Library of the Year, becoming the first ever to achieve the honor. The Library of Congress first named Barr Memorial as Federal Library of the Year in 2014.

Lee contributes to Guinness record attempt

Army community members at Fort Lee are hoping they have kicked their way into the Guinness Book of World Records. Individuals connected with the Child and Youth Services program took part in a virtual soccer kick challenge timed to coincide with April's observance of Month of the Military Child.

Employees recognized for 'continuous support' to Japan Ground-Self Defense Force

Five U.S. Army Garrison Japan civilian employees were recognized by the Japan Ground-Self Defense Force for their "continuous cooperation and support to the JGSDF" during a ceremony at Camp Zama March 30.

Greely welcomes Rotational Forces from California National Guard

U.S. Army Garrison Alaska, Fort Greely and the 49th Missile Defense Battalion welcomed Soldiers of the California Army National Guard's 330th Military Police Company to Fort Greely March 30.

IMCOM Weekly News Sampler

Thursday, April 15, 2021

IMCOM GROUNDBREAKING EVENTS Through July 30, 2021

April 26, USAG Detroit Arsenal Groundbreaking for construction of a 40 MVA electrical substation within the Detroit Arsenal perimeter to replace a 11MVA electrical substation.

April 29, Fort Hood Groundbreaking for the start of demolition at Chaffee Village. Actual time and attendees are still pending.

May 3, Daegu Groundbreaking for FY21 R&M project to repair deteriorated B975 (Barracks). This 3-story UH built in 1987 requires complete replacement of utility systems. The project PA is $6.8M with an estimated start date of May 2021 and completion in August 2022.

June 1, USAG Daegu Groundbreaking for FY21 R&M project to repair deteriorated B309 (Barracks). This three-story UH built in 1962 requires complete replacement of utility systems. The project PA is $6M with an estimated start date of July 2021 and completion in September 2022.

June 1, Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall Groundbreaking ceremony for Building 416 renovation. This ceremony kicks off the construction phase of a $31M renovation project to improve the quality of life for USMC Marines stationed on JBM-HH. Dates and times are tentative and will be refined at a later date.

June 14, Fort Huachuca Groundbreaking for Electronic Proving Ground (EPG) RDTE facility. FY18 MCA PN90351. Ground Transportation Equipment Building will be used for testing and maintenance/storage of EPG's vehicles and equipment. Estimated project duration June 2021 - June 2023. Estimated value of facility is $30M. Groundbreaking ceremony is still in the planning phase with times TBD.

July 7, Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall Groundbreaking ceremony for Building 404 on Fort Myer. Building 404 houses the only Dining Facility (DFAC) on JBM-HH as well as the Soldier for Life Program and the U.S. Army Band. Dates and times are tentative and will be refined at a later date.